

and also being in sympathy with those strikers, has given them encouragement in their strike throughout the last four months, by giving them space in your daily.

But on Jan. 18 there appeared in The Day Book an announcement of the Hebrew institute, about the concerts given here on Sundays. This announcement made a very bad impression on me, due to the fact that I never expected this radical daily having announcements of an institution which is boycotted by all the radical Jewish element in this city.

Hoping that this will receive your attention and that you will give this place in The Public Forum, I am yours very truly,—W. Berg, 1343 Elburn Av.

ALDERMAN PAYS FINE OF IN-BAD TEAM OWNER

Ald. Buck yesterday paid the fine of $1 and costs imposed upon Stanley Rejholec for driving his team across the sidewalk near his home. Rejholec recently told Ald. Merriam's sub-committee probing the connection between hiring of teams and politics that Herman Heinemann, precinct leader of 33d ward, had appropriated a certain percentage of his pay each month.

Patrolman McGrath, who made the arrest, said he had been told by Lieut. Palczynski to watch for just such an offense at just such a point. The two policemen will be asked to come before the committee at its next meeting.

Rejholec said he drove across the sidewalk for the past two years without interference.

BRICKLAYERS JOIN BUILDING TRADES DEPT OF A. F. L.

The International Bricklayers' union in their convention in Toronto voted to join the building trades dept of the American Federation of Labor.

This is expected to end a long fight between Bricklayers' and Stonemasons' Intern. unions.

COLLECTING OLD PHONOGRAPH RECORDS FOR SOLDIERS

MAY TAYLOR MOULTON

Well known in eastern society circles she has started a novel charity. Knowing that wounded soldiers in Europe find the days in the hospital dreary she has started a movement to collect and send cast-off phonograph records and machines to military hospitals abroad.

CALIFORNIA FLOODED AGAIN

San Francisco, Jan. 28.—Floods and storms, for second time in two weeks, isolated Southern California from rest of the world today. All communication south was lost beyond Fresno. Wireless messages reported 2 feet of water in San Diego's streets. Flood waters were said to have made of Venice, Cal., a replica of its Italian namesake.
